Concurrent Technologies Plc

Export Regulations Update

Concurrent Technologies Plc ("the Company"), a world leading specialist in the design and manufacture of high-end embedded computer products for critical applications in the defence, aerospace, telecommunications, transportation, scientific and industrial markets, today provides the following update in relation to the application of UK Government Export Control Regulations to those of its products which contain encryption technology.

The UK Department for Business, Innovation and Skills has today published an Open General Export Licence that de-controls the exporting of encryption products of the type produced by the Company. The licence will considerably simplify the exporting of the Company's products to its key markets outside of the EU and USA.
